D. London-X-2-Pts-4, 13 September 1945: Interrogation of SS Ostubaf Dr. Paul DITTEL. Listed in the document is Werner GOETTSCH, Ostubaf. Held a leading position in Amt VI and was never transferred to Amt VII, but frequently interfered with the business of other depts., claiming that he acted on KALTENBRUNNER's orders, whose confidence he apparently enjoyed. According to source (during PW interrogation), GOETTSCH was a man of a most unbalanced nature, hypocritical and inclined to believe in miracles. The source also characterized GOETTSCH as a half-wit and an incorrigible busybody. E. London-X-2-Pts-57, date unknown: Report of Interrogation of Alfred NAUJOCKS on 24 November 1944. Listed in the document is Werner GOETTSCH, address: Coloredogasse 28 (Vienna). Personal friend of NAUJOCKS, whom he had known since the Kiel days when they both joined the SS. Now working as SS Obersturmfuhrer at Vienna Dienststelle and has a great deal to do with WANNECK, who is very much under his influence. GOETTSCH is also an active member of the Free Austrian Movement and it was he who introduced NAUJOCKS to Prof. HEINRICH and other members of this group. His address is as above, he shares this home with his wife, mother and brother. He also uses the same address as his office.
